Dear Sir,

Savannah, State of Georgia
25th Oct. 1789

Your much oliged by your very polite favor of the 9th instant in answer to my letter of the 13th instant. The military arrangement then suggested appears now to be necessary, as the Commissioners have not been able to succeed in finding a treaty with the Indians, and that as an envoy without even being satisfied with an answer to the letter delivered by the envoy at the request of the Indians, he was immediately dismissed. In fact, they have already commenced hostilities on the frontier of this State, in order to prevent the removal of the Indians to the west. This is by an order from an officer of the militia in this State, who says the Indians have been driven from their homes on the frontier by an order from the President himself. The reason for their refusal to treat may possibly be accounted for by the following circumstances: as the treaty was on his way with the Indians to the cool that they were met by an envoy from New-Orleans, with the notification of a treaty commenced some time since, between the Spanish Governor, & lately confirmed by Charles the 2d. to the present King of France, guaranteeing to the Indians all the lands
I am much obliged by your very polite favor of the 9th., August in answer to my letter of the 15th June, the Military arrangement then suggested appears now to be necessary, as the Commissioners have not been able to succeed in holding a treaty with the Indians

Col Irvine of the Militia who says the Indians have beat down Kemps fort in Washington County & some houses.

The reason for them refusing to treat may possibly be accounted for by the following circumstance as Mr. Gilvery was on his way with the Indians to the rock landing, and was overtaken by an express from New Orleans, with the ratification of a treaty commenced sometime since between the Spanish & Creek Nations, & lately confirmed by Charles the IV the present King of Spain guaranting to the Indians all their land they possess or claim on the East side of the Mississippi, this instrument of writing Mr Osbourne one of the Commissioners, assures me (upon his Scared Honor) he both seen & read, being handed to him by Mr.Gilvery for that purpose;

I believe I told you on the 15th June “that I was decidedly of Opinion, we never should have a permanent peace with the Creek Nation; who are numerous & insolent, until they were made to experience our superiority in the Fields & an Army stationed for the protection of the Southern States, not only against the incursions of the Indians, but also against the ideal claims of the Spaniards”

Their late Conduct verifies this Opinion, & points out the indispensible neglect of compelling the Creeks to treat upon our own terms in the Heart of their Country, which I pledge myself to effect, at the head of Four Battalions of Infantry of Six hundred effectives each two Regiments of Cavalry of Four Hundred Forty foreny pin each & ^ (a Corps of) two Hundred & fifty Artillery—purposely Offered & well appointed, which is as large as a Operating force, as can be conveniently supplied with provisions & a draft of Militia in addition to this force may be necessary for the purpose of keeping open the Communication between the cavalry from which we undecipherable draw our supplies & the Indian Nation, & for the defense of proper deposits & places of Arms in case of a serious Operation; I expect shortly to obtain an accurate acct of the numbers of Gun men which can be afforded to us from a Mr Gilvery, and a trader of the Indians. Mr Gilvery, formerly a trader, now a rich planter near this place / I undecipherable had a list of the towns & number of fighting men in each, but it is mislaid, however I recollect that the aggregate of the Upper & lower Creeks was some where about 6,000 the Chocktaws 5,000 the Cherokee, 1,500 & the Cherraws 800 Gun mans,

We have nothing to apprehend I believe but from the Creeks, on the Contrary we may probably have the assistance of the Chocktaws & Cherokees if necessary as they have heretofore been enemies to the Creeks & frequently at war with them; but should a general confederacy take place, they can not support themselves but for a very short time in body- & should they collect upon the undecipherable of the Occasion, it may be the happy means of putting a speedy conclusion to this war, as their numbers will only serve to confuse & render them an easy undecipherable to our undecipherable Cavalry often being routed by the Infantry & artillery, in an open wood & campaigns County, such as that professed by the Creek Nation for thier most part is,

is I shall be much Obliged by the earliest information should a Military Arrangement be thought necessary, & also for your undecipherable with His Excellency the President, in Obtaining me the Command of this Expedition.

Circumstances will admit in order to facilitate an affectual Operation, should such measures be adopted.
I have the honor to be
