

My Dear Sir

This will probably be handed you by Mrs Le Beauville widow of Mr de Neuville of Litchfield a Gentleman who embarked very zealously and very early in the cause of the country - was instrumental in promoting it and as I understand an object of persecution in consequence of it which was a link in the chain of his pecuniary ruin - I think his widow has a strong claim upon the kindness of our country as far as general considerations will admit relief - and she has a particular claim upon every body's good will that of being a distressed & amiable woman. I am for her your patron & good officer

Edw. M^r de Neuville
Y^r truly Affectionate
Jan 19. 1797

J. W. Henry Esq

John de Neuville Esq
No. 51796
(1797) (Bank of America)
Vol 2. p 580

This will probably be handed you by Madame De Neuville widow of Mr. De Neuville of Holland, a Gentleman who embarked very zealously and very early in the cause of this country—was instrumental in promoting it and as I understand an object of persecution in consequence of it, which was a link in the chain of his pecuniary ruin.

I think his widow has a strong claim upon the kindness of our country as far as general considerations will admit relief—and she has a particular claim upon every body's good will, that of being a distressed & amiable woman. I ask for her your patronage & good offices. Adieu My Dr Friend

Yrs. Truly—A. Hamilton, Jan. 19, 1797